Placement in Pools X and Y

The remaining teams are ranked in order of points; the top three teams are placed in Pool X and the rest of the teams are placed in Pool Y. All teams start with zero (0) points and are randomly placed in positions within their new pools.

Seeding for Championship Bracket:

Japan led all teams with 10 points - No. 6 seed

NZL, HAU, ISR and SCO had 8 points each

Goal Diff:

NZL: .50 (No. 7)

HAU: .42 (No. 8)

Per Tournament Guidelines published in February, the seeds 9-11 were drawn from a hat at a meeting following the final game on Tuesday.

AUT had the most points (4) among remaining teams

The winner of Pool X (based on 1. points, 2. goal differential) will advance to play the loser of the 11th place game in a relegation game on Saturday; the winner will finish in 12th.

The winner of Pool Y will play the third-ranked team in Pool X on Saturday; the winner will finish in 15th place.

Final positions 17-19 will be determined by finish in Pool Y play. Ties will be broken by

1. Head-to-head
2. Goal differential (among tied teams)
3. Goal differential (among all teams)
4. Least goals conceded
